

California Department of Fish and Game Seasonal Job Bulletin

Position: Fish & Wildlife Scientific Aid

Position Number: 565-231-0835-905

Location: Rancho Cordova

Tenure: Seasonal (up to 9 months)

Comments:

Under the direct supervision of the Lake and Streambed Alteration (LSA) Program, Senior Environmental Scientist, the incumbent will assist permanent staff members in conducting Program tasks and activities. The incumbent shall: 1) support staff by assisting with the organization of LSA Program documents, including LSA violations; 2) support staff by assisting with the internal distribution and organization of California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), and California Endangered Species Act (CESA) documents, as well as the creation and maintenance of a document repositories and tracking systems; 3) assist staff by providing support in implementing the Director's Permit Monitoring and Compliance Initiative; 4) assist staff in the preparation of presentations containing technical information; and 5) participate in field surveys for the collection of scientific data.

A high degree of personal initiative is required. A successful candidate will need to be self-motivated and possess both written and verbal communication skills, the ability to work effectively both independently and within a team environment.

The incumbent must be willing to work in inclement weather, on uneven surfaces, and possess a valid California Driver's License. Must have the equivalent to completion of at least 2 years of college and a minimum of 10 semester hours in relevant scientific coursework, i.e., natural resource sciences, wildlife, general or conservation biology.

Please list the position number on your application under "Examination(s) or Job Title(s) for which you are applying".

Contact: Isabel Baer, 916-358-2915

To Apply: Please submit a signed standard state application (STD 678) to:

North Central Region
1701 Nimbus Road
Rancho Cordova, CA 95670

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer offering equal opportunity to all regardless of sex, race, religion, ancestry, disability, or sexual orientation.